

Information on the Publication of Book Reviews

(18 November 2022)

The HJIL usually publishes three to five book reviews per issue and, from time to time, longer review essays. The books reviewed in the Journal address fundamental and current issues of public international law, European Union law, comparative public law and, occasionally, domestic public law.

Book reviews of the HJIL are solicited by invitation of the book review editor. Unsolicited reviews are carefully considered and may be accepted if they fall into the Journal's scope. Please contact our book review editor, Richard Dören: doeren@mpil.de.
